

In the Social Realm

BUT ONLY THREE.

Lady, although poor art not without In thy clear eyes I see What makes the world's affairs and every As caught in time.
For in their clear brown depths unwillingly Lie mirrored life's truth, Frank mien, calm, delicate modesty,
And tender truth.
A heart to love and love a perfect mind,
And yet a spirit free,
Healthy and sportive as a mountain wind
On a bright day.
So love I thee, one thy tender lips—Although full dear may seem Nor any charm that feels time's swift elapse.
But only thee.

Salt Lake people who go out in the day world would be content were all the weeks of the autumn season as delightful as the one just ended. Not that this week has been extraordinary, for the number and extent of its social affairs, but there was something for almost everybody and all had a good time. The tea given by Miss Harkness proved a very delightful affair.

The reception given by Mrs. James E. Jennings was one of unusual interest, while a great deal of interest centered around Mrs. J. W. Young's house party.

The marriage of Mrs. Florence Din-woody Clarkson and Mr. Richard P.
Munroe was a quiet affair, but a noticeable one on account of the prominence of the contracting parties.

Several interesting affairs have been announced for next week, among them being a large theatre party on Tuesday night which will be given by Mr.
Max Hanauer and Mr. Lora. It will be preceded by a dinner at the home of Miss Shearman. For the younger set there will be the High school dance at Christensen's on Friday night. This will be the first of a series that will continue during the winter.

The reception given Thursday by Mrs. James E. Jennings was a very brilliant affair. It was given as a house warming, the lovely new home being much admired by the guests.

Mrs. Jennings was assisted in receiving by Mrs. William Jennings and Mrs. Sophia Sharp. The decorations consisted of palms and autumn leaves.

In the reception and the old-fashioned fireplace was filled with bright-colored leaves and bunched with palms, while the same decorations were used as a screen in front of the open fireplace, behind which was stationed Christenson's full orchestra.

The dining-room was artistically done in yellow chrysanthemums, coccineas and sunnys being used. The room was presided over by Miss Shearman.

Miss Wendell Benson, Miss Leda Rawlins and Miss Lucile Taylor. In the library which was served by Miss Frankie Sharp.

The hosts of the reception were from 1 until 6, and during that time the house was crowded, over 175 guests being in attendance.

Professor W. R. Malone was a guest in the city during the week.

Miss Lillian Bolinger of San Francisco is the guest of Miss Mackintosh.

Miss Bessie Bacon will arrive in the city during the coming week and will remain during the autumn as the guest of the Misses Judge.

Miss Margaret Park is in Ogden, visiting Miss Kiesel.

Mrs. Hanauer, Miss Ida Hanauer, and Mr. Abe Hanauer left Thursday for a pleasure trip through the east. They will be gone a month.

The marriage of Miss Louise Grosshell and Mr. McCune will occur Wednesday.

Mrs. J. W. Young of Third street is the hostess of a delightful house party.

The guests are Miss Murray, Miss Winnie Murray, Miss Aline Murray of Kentucky, and Miss Eloise Shearman.

The young ladies were invited Friday to remain until Tuesday. A number of entertainments have been given in their honor. Friday night Mrs. L. C.
Trent entertained for them. Yesterday Mrs. Young gave a box party at the matinee in their honor, which was followed by a dinner. Today a number of gentlemen, among them being Mr.
George Lawrence, Dr. Critchfield and Mr. Murray will be added to the party.

The features of the day being a dinner and an old-fashioned southern supper.
Tomorrow night the festivities will close with a brilliant box party to witness Mr. Crane's opening play.

One of the present fads of society followers is the "donation lunch" which promises to become extremely popular.

Mr. W. J. Lawrence is in the city.

Mr. J. H. Young, Mr. George N. Lawrence and Mr. Will T. Dinwoody have gone to Frisco.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Wilson have taken possession of their new home, 761 First street.

Mrs. De Bruih, who has been the guest of Mrs. Richard Keyes for the past week, left for her home in San Francisco Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hahn left yesterday for Denver, where they will make their home in the future.

Mrs. Frank M. Stephens left yesterday for Omaha where she will spend the autumn.

Mr. John C. Hays of Park City, brother of Mrs. Richard Keyes, left Friday for Juneau, Alaska, where he will spend the winter.

Mrs. Will F. Dinwoody will return from California during the coming week.

Miss Florence Roundy entertained Thursday night in honor of the friends who spent the summer at Holiday park. Cards were the feature of the evening, prizes being won by Miss Gertrude Corcoran and Mr. Will Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reid of San Francisco will arrive in the city during the coming week. They intend making their home here. Mr. Reid was formerly a Salt Lake boy and has many friends here who will be pleased to welcome him back.

A new card club was formed during the week. Among its members are Misses Mary and Joseph Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Devery Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Searff, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caine, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Little. The club will hold its first meeting Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Joseph Richards.

Mrs. Hanauer entertained at dinner Wednesday evening.

Mrs. William Reid was the hostess of an informal affair Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Grand Young returned from New York Thursday.

their friends in a manner that will add not a little to the social life of our city.

There will be a meeting of the association of the Orphan's Home and Day Nursery on Monday from 2 until 5. Friends of the institution and old members of the association are urged to be present.

Miss Margaret Miller and Mr. Samuel E. Warburton were married in the temple on Thursday, and in the evening a reception was given. Among the guests were Bishop and Mrs. Warburton, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robertson, Mrs. James Robertson, Mrs. J. S. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. D. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs.
William Warburton, Mr. and Mrs.
Kinglow, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Warburton, Mr. and Mrs. Powell, Mr. and Mrs.
Harry Snyder, Mrs. May Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ashworth, Misses Jane, Alice and Bessie Miller, Miss Barbara Brown, Mr. R. E. Miller, Miss G.
Hendrickson, Mr. Robert Schank, Miss Hedrickson and Mr. William Lancaster.

A dainty little dinner was given Sunday evening at the West Hotel by Mrs.
George Field, Miss Thompson and Miss Hoff. The table decorations were floral, and the menu was excellent. Those present were Mrs. L. B. Rhodes, Mrs.
Curtis Knight, Mrs. Cliff Curtis, Mrs.
Sol Dickinson, Miss Robbins, Miss Duffy, Miss Englin, Miss Wey, Miss Davis, Miss Blanchard and Miss Rhodes.

Last Tuesday evening the friends and patrons of the Young Ladies' Choir and Doctrine association were entertained at what proved to be one of the most enjoyable dinners of the season. The appointed hall was artistically decorated with a profusion of the rich and managed flowers and foliage of dead and living; the mantel particularly presented an enchanting picture with its wealth of glowing leaves and the red, white and blue of Old Glory's graceful folds. After the rendition of a brief but interesting programme, during which Miss M. Harley and Miss Grace Davis, two of Salt Lake's sweet singers, were heard. Then those not included passed the time at the round tables; others whiled away the hours in social chat until refreshments were served in the dining room, where one based on a delicious hors-d'oeuvre—beautiful cut glass, ornate silverware, the perfume of fragrant flowers, and the soft mellow light as it sparkled and reflected its images among the mirrors, made it truly beautiful scene. Among the 75 guests were Mrs. Trevelyan, Mrs.
Horn, Mrs. Wall, Mrs. McFadden, Mrs.
Fulmer, Mrs. Gillett, Mrs. Grace, Mrs. Ladd, Mrs. Nolle, Mrs. Leno, A. Wall, Tre-velyan, J. B. Trevelyan, J. B. Trevelyan, Kearney, Kearney, Kearney, Kearney, McGurran, E. Lane, Murphy, Taylor, Gillett, C. McFadden, All expressed their hearty enjoyment to their fair entertainers the Misses K. E. Layton, E.
Laurie, Clara, P. and C. Dugan, L.
Trumbo, M. Cottrell, K. Horn, L. Roche and M. Hubbell.

The High School party to be given at Christensen's on Friday evening will be one of the pleasant events of next week. The chaperones will be Mrs.
Robert Mackintosh, Mrs. Richard Grant, Miss Thomas, Miss Burke, Miss Park and Miss Allen.

Ladies' Literary Club.
Friday, Oct. 22 is education day at the Ladies' Literary club. Hon. C. E. Allen will speak on the school law of Utah. Mr. J. F. Millspaugh will describe the school system and there will be an open discussion of the question, "How Far is the Teacher Responsible for the Moral Training of the Pupil?"

The literary section of the Ladies' Literary club, Thursday morning, Oct. 21, at 311 Eighth East street.
The programme consists of a review of L. C. Cornford's historical novel, "The Master Beggars" by Mrs. Putnam and readings from Goethe's "Egmont" by Mrs. Nelson.

Federation of Women's Clubs.
The annual meeting of the Utah Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in this city Oct. 21, at 10:30 a. m., in the First Congregational church. Orders for the two evening years will be cleared and other business transacted.

Nineteenth Century Club, Provo.
A very delightful afternoon was enjoyed by the members of the Nineteenth Century club on Friday last, at the home of Mrs. Westwood.

The club was called to order by the President, Mrs. Coray.

Miss Moore was appointed critic.
An interesting and literary drill was conducted by Miss J. E. Kellogg on the motion to adjourn.

The topic for the day was "Literature of the Colonial Period," and was presented by Mrs. Westwood in a charming manner, beginning with the writings of John Smith, and taking up those that followed up to the time of Benjamin Franklin, and reading some peculiar little extracts from Jonathan Edwards and Cotton Mather.

The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Green, both of Salt Lake City.

After the report of the critic the club adjourned to meet next Friday at the same place.

IT PAYS TO BUY SHOES AT WALKER'S STORE!

It is hard to get the public to understand that in these days of artifice it takes an expert to know leathers—that poor quality is concealed under a clever mask of lamp black, etc. We have built up a great shoe business, one that has grown upon character and the three cardinal points observed in attaining to this success have been—Shoes exploited combining Durability, Superiority of Workmanship and Economy, which includes Honesty of Material used, true Scientific Shoemaking—stylish and sightly —and bought in a way that Shoes of sterling worth, the kinds that have made their makers famous, are accessible to all at a price asked elsewhere
